ITINERARY

MARCH 2022

FRIDAY 18TH

Board the 1920's railmotors CPH 1,3 & 7 at Broadmeadow, Gosford or Sydney Terminal and travel through the Southern Highlands and Molonglo Gorge to Canberra. Transfer to our hotel and join us for welcome drinks before enjoying a relaxing free evening - L

SATURDAY 19TH

This morning there is free time to explore as you wish; perhaps take a walk around Lake Burley Griffin. Early afternoon join your coach for an orientation tour of Canberra. Take in the spectacular views from Mount Ainslie before a visit to the Australian War Memorial. Dinner tonight is at the delightful Pialligo Estate - B,D

SUNDAY 20TH

After breakfast today's touring will include highlights such as the National Gallery, National Portrait Gallery and National Museum of Australia. Enjoy a tour of the Museum of Australian Democracy and lunch at Old Parliament House. Tonight we enjoy a spectacular dinner at Poachers Pantry at Springrange - B,L,D

MONDAY 21ST

Reboard the railmotors and journey to Goulburn for a quick leg stretch before returning to Sydney, Gosford or Broadmeadow - B,L

CPH 1,3 & 7 are three of a class of 37 railmotors built in the 1920s. This will be the first time all three have been to Canberra, and the first time ever for CPH 3.

Enjoy a private tour of the Museum of Australian Democracy and lunch at Old Parliament House

Our visit to Canberra includes visits to several must see sights such as the National Museum of Australia

The Australian War Memorial is a must do experience on any visit to Canberra

Our unique weekend getaway by 1920s railmotors will showcase well known and must see sights as well as local food and wine producers. It's one good thing after another!

Enjoy dinner at Pialligo Estate with matched wines
